

FIG. 3: (Color online) (a) An AFM scan of the surface of the sphere used in the first set of measurements showing the imprinted sinusoidal corrugations covered with stochastic roughness. (b) A typical section of the grating surface along a $y = \text{const}$ plane. The solid line shows a sine function obtained from the fit.