

Delivering Quality and Value-Added Services

Strategic advantages. Cognizant's 4th generation model delivers top-quality results, bottom-line benefits and more.

"Our relationship with Cognizant is extremely valuable to DFS Group, providing our company with a huge strategic advantage. Its easy-to-use 4th Generation model and partnership-centric focus make Cognizant extremely agile at staying closely aligned with our goals and priorities. With strong business ethics, an exceptional talent-management system and unwavering integrity, Cognizant functions as a seamless extension of our own IT teams, delivering the highest quality results to DFS and helping us get the most mileage from our IT budget. Without this elite organization, DFS could never have afforded to establish what is now a
