

"Western Alliance was the first bank interested in providing us with more things we need outside the focus of the original relationship. It's refreshing to have a banking partner that is not a one-trick pony."

— Rick Arvielo, New American Funding

