

"Consumer electronics manufacturers in personal, portable, connected markets build products based on standard application processor platforms. Dialog is a leader in forging strategic partnerships and supplying companion power management ICs with the world's leading application processor providers to deliver its customers fully optimised solutions."

Mark Tyndall

Vice President, Business Development and Corporate Strategy