

The FWC sets out:

1. the procedure by which the contracting authority may order supplies and/or services from the contractor;
2. the provisions that apply to any order form or specific contract which the contracting authority and the contractor (hereinafter also collectively referred to as 'the parties') may conclude under the FWC; and
3. the obligations of the parties during and after the duration of the FWC.

By submitting a tender, the contractor waives its own terms and conditions. All documents of this nature (end-user agreements, contractor's general conditions, etc.) are held inapplicable, unless explicitly mentioned in the special conditions of the FWC. In all circumstances, in the event of contradiction between the FWC and documents issued by the contractor, the FWC prevails, regardless of any provision to the contrary in the contractor's documents.
