Alexandria Real Estate Equities, Inc. (ARE:NYSE) is the first and only publicly-traded real estate operating company focused principally on the ownership, operation, management, acquisition, expansion and redevelopment and selective development of properties containing office/laboratory space. Alexandria is the Landlord of Choice to the Life Science Industry®, providing high-quality Labspace® and services to the broad and diverse life science sector. Alexandria's national operating platform is based on the principle of "clustering", with assets and operations strategically located in key life science hub markets.