Figure 8: Anatomical distribution of stronger-/weaker-than-expected functional connections. In all panels A-B we focus on the 25 connections that appear most frequently as stronger-than-expected. In panels C-D we focus on the 25 connections that are consistently weaker than expected. The connections are color-coded in both cases so that they can be identified in the anatomical plots as well as the distance vs event count plots.